About Me

I was born in a believing family. I got to know the Lord as my personal saviour at the age of 11. Since then, each passing year has been a story of His continuous mercy and grace in my life, as I figure out how to honour him in every aspect of my life. I am looking for a born-again believer who sees God's hand in the world around them. Preferably, a city-bred person who enjoys their occupation, is physically active, and above all, has a strong sense of self.
